It imparts courses in the engineering branches of Mechanical Engg., Computer Science and Engineering, Electronics and Communication Engineering, Information Science and Engineering, Civil Engineering, Electronics and Electrical Engg for UG and PG programmes. East West Institute of Technology is also well equipped with laboratories in Chemistry, Physics, Environmental Engineering, Materials testing, Geology, Geo Technical Engineering, Energy Engineering, Structural Engineering, Electronics & Computer Systems etc. and all are university approved and recognized labs.

The Research centres in East West Institute of Technology have been established with a mission of exploring scientific research in the field of upcoming Science and Technology. At present the centers are developing semiconductor nano-materials for application in environmental cleaning. Nano oxides, silicates, aluminates, ferrites etc for optoelectronic, phosphors and display applications.

The Centre has facilities to synthesize pure and doped nano-materials by chemical co-precipitation, sol-gel, hydrothermal and combustion (LCS) techniques. The center is equipped with material characterization facilities such as FTIR spectrometer and UV-visible spectrophotometer. The characterized nano-materials are used for their photocatalytic, luminescence and antimicrobial activities.

INTRODUCTION ABOUT THE INSTITUTIONS COMMITTED FOR MOU

About Davangere University:

Davangere University established in 2009 by bifurcating two districts from Kuvempu University, Shivamogga, for catering to the needs of higher education for the people of Davangere and Chitradurga districts, where 112 affiliated UG/PG colleges are functioning with an intake 50,000+ students. The campus is located in Shivagangotri, the then P.G. Centre of Kuvempu University. The University is situated in the central part of Karnataka, 260 kms away from the capital city of Bangalore on National Highway No. 4, has good Road and Railways connectivity. The university is situated in rural area, nearly 10kms from Davangere in a sprawling campus of 73 acres land donated by philanthropists may be the one of its kind.

Since its establishment in 2009, great deal of work has been done in the university with the support of the State Government, Higher Education and Finance Departments, University Grants Commission, State Collegiate Education and State Treasury offices in Shimoga, support from faculty and staff of the university and other institutions, in providing the basic infrastructure facilities on campus, in laying a relatively strong academic foundation.

Only 10 departments existed at the time of starting the University, now it is expanded to 21. Basic science courses are in great demand besides commerce education. The student enrollment to P.G Courses has increased from 600+ to 2000+ over a period of time while more than 4000 students pursue studies in all when colleges are included. Although, new departments are yet to be sanctioned with teaching and non-teaching posts the University has well qualified and committed faculty. Many are working as guest faculty who are selected every year by advertisements for selecting well qualified ones. While many of them continue to work since many years others leave seeking greener pastures. The faculty and staff are committed to provide good quality education, skill development etc. The students spend quality time on campus and enjoy their stay.

The Department of Social work was started in 2006 at then Post Graduate Centre of Kuvempu University. The department has completed 14 successful years in imparting knowledge to the students' community in three different specialized areas including Human Resource Management, Community Development and Medical & Psychiatric social work. Currently our Department is one of the main stream entities of Davangere University. The students of our Department are oriented in both theory and practice of Social work through regular classes and concurrent field work activities.

Davangere University is one of the youngest Universities in Karnataka. It has a jurisdiction of two Districts viz., Davangere and Chitradurga and headquartered at Davangere. Davangere which was part of Chitradurga District became a separate district on 15th August 1997 and is emerging as an important educational centre besides being a well known commercial and industrial town in Karnataka. Davangere University prior to its establishment functioned as a Post-Graduate Centre of the University of Mysore from 1979 to 1987. Later, with the establishment of Kuvempu University in 1987, the P.G. Center came under the jurisdiction of the new University due to its geographical location and hence functioned as its P.G. Centre from 1987 to 2009.

Davangere University was established (with a Gazette Notification from the Government of Karnataka) on 18th August 2009 after being carved out of Kuvempu University with a purpose and vision to meet the educational aspirations of the people of this region. The University has 112 Colleges affiliated to it in total, with one Constituent College and one Autonomous College, offering Graduate and Post-Graduate programmes in various disciplines catering to the educational needs of more than 60,000 students. The University is striving to reach excellence in academic, Research & Development and community service at large.

Karnataka State Council for Science and Technology (KSCST) was established in the year 1975. It is one of the first State S&T Councils set up in the country. KSCST is an autonomous S&T organization under Department of Science & Technology, Government of Karnataka.

During the last 45 years, KSCST has been pro-actively engaging itself to identify, propose and implement S&T based solutions to locale specific needs/problems in the broad areas of Water, Education, Energy, Ecology and Environment, Waste management and Infrastructure. In co-operation with the Indian Institute of Science and several other premier R&D institutions, KSCST executes many projects and programmes aimed at improving socio-economic conditions of the people of the state.

  - (iv) is required to be disclosed by order of court or any applicable government authority or under any applicable law.
- 4.7 Upon termination of this Agreement, the Receiving Party shall, upon the request of the Disclosing Party, return all Confidential Information (including all copies thereof) to the Disclosing Party or destroy the same on Disclosing Party's instruction, within thirty (30) days after the termination or expiration of the term of this Agreement, whichever is earlier.
- 4.8 The obligations of confidentiality under this Agreement shall survive the expiry or earlier termination of this Agreement for a period of two (2) years.

5. OWNERSHIP OF INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

- 5.1 For the purpose of this Project:
- (a) Background Intellectual Property Rights:
Background Intellectual Property Rights shall include any Intellectual Property Rights that are made available as between the Parties, which are to be used for the Project, subject to discussion and mutual agreement between the Parties. Background Intellectual Property Rights shall remain the separate property of the Party making such Background Intellectual Property Rights available.
  - (b) Foreground Intellectual Property Rights:
Foreground Intellectual Property Rights shall include any Intellectual Property Rights that arise, or are obtained or developed, created, written, prepared and discovered jointly by the Parties, arising or otherwise brought into existence pursuant to this Agreement.
- 5.2 Each Party grants the other a royalty-free, non-exclusive license for the duration of the Project to use its Background Intellectual Property for the sole purpose of carrying out the Project. No Party may grant any sub-license over or in respect of the other's Background Intellectual Property.
- 5.3 The ownership of all Foreground Intellectual Property Rights arising out of the Project shall be expressly subject to a Joint Development Agreement to be mutually agreed by the Parties.
- 5.4 The provision of this Clause 5 shall survive the expiry or termination of this Agreement.

6. REPORTS

- 6.1 Both Parties through their Project Team shall furnish the other Party with written reports as to the progress of works carried out for the Project in month 12.
- 6.2 Each Party shall respond promptly to any queries from the other Party from time to time in respect of the progress of the works in relation to the Project and any other matters in relation thereto by such means as are agreed from time to time by the Parties hereto.

7. PUBLICATION

Notwithstanding any other provisions to the contrary contained herein and subject to Clause 6, either Party may publish materials relating to the Project, Provided that:

- 7.1 All materials prepared for publication by a Party (the 'Submitting Party') shall be forwarded to the other Party for written permission to publish at least one (1) month prior to the submission for publication or disclosure to a third party, for which the written permission shall not be unreasonably withheld; and
- 7.2 If at any time during the said period of one (1) month the other Party requests the Submitting Party not to proceed with the publication or disclosure of the material in the form submitted, then the Submitting Party will either:
  - (i) amend the material as requested by the other Party; or
  - (ii) delay the publication or disclosure until such time as the other Party reasonably deems such publication or disclosure to be possible or appropriate in view of any commercially sensitive information contained therein.

8. OTHER ACTIVITIES

The existence of this Agreement shall not prevent either Party from engaging in any other activities similar to or in competition with those of the subject matter of this Agreement, nor shall it prevent a Party from developing or exploiting other services and/or processes; Provided always that either Party shall not utilize any Background Intellectual Property belonging to the other Party or Project Intellectual Property without obtaining the prior written consent of the other Party.

9. ADVERTISING

Either Party shall, in making any public statement regarding the Project, or in relation to any information, product, process or invention developed as a result of the Project, as the case may be, include in such public statement, an acknowledgement of the services and cooperation received from the other Party. However, each of the Parties undertakes that it shall not use the other Party's name and logo in any such information, product, advertisement or publication without the prior written approval of the other Party.

10. WARRANTIES

- 10.1 The Parties shall ensure that the services and technical assistance provided by both Parties in relation to this Agreement are provided with due care, diligence and skill reasonably expected of professional persons providing services of the kind described. The Parties shall not make any other warranties or assurances with respect to the services and technical assistance carried out in relation to this Agreement, or to its quality, accuracy or suitability for any purpose.
- 10.2 It is the duties of both Parties, to the best of their knowledge, to ensure that the IPs related to the Project do not infringe any third-party intellectual property;
- 10.3 Parties have the necessary right and authority to enter into this Agreement;
- 10.4 The Parties signatories hereto for and on behalf of that party are authorised and fully empowered to execute this Agreement on that Party's behalf

11. LIABILITY

- 11.1 Each Party shall not be liable to the other Party for any loss nor damage arising from its failure to perform work on time or within estimated costs, provided that the said Party has used its reasonable endeavors in all respects.
- 11.2 Each Party shall indemnify and hold harmless the other Party against all demands, claims, liabilities, losses, damages, legal costs and other expenses of any nature whatsoever, including infringement of any third party intellectual property rights which may be asserted against or suffered by the other Party and which relate to or arise under this Agreement, but excluding any liability to the extent that results from the reckless misconduct or willful default of the other Party.
- 11.3 Notwithstanding any other provision herein the Parties agree that UM shall not be liable and DU releases UM from and in respect of all claims for consequential, indirect or special damages including but not limited to loss of business profits, anticipatory profits, business interruption or loss of business information.

12. TERMINATION

- 12.1 Notwithstanding the provision of Clause 4, Clauses 5, 6, 8 and 10 shall survive and be of full effect after expiry or termination of this Agreement.
- 12.2 Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement, any Party may terminate this Agreement for any reason whatsoever by giving at least two (2) months prior notice in writing to the other Party and the Parties shall consult each other to agree on a reasonable program of work for the notice period leading up to termination date.
- 12.3 If either Party commits a breach of this Agreement, the other Party may request in writing that the breach be remedied. If the Party committing the breach does not remedy it within thirty (30) days, then the other Party may terminate this Agreement immediately without further notice.

12.4 The Parties agree that UM may immediately terminate this Agreement by prior notice in writing to the Company in the following circumstances:

- (a) the making or filing of any application to liquidate or wind up the DU (other than for the purpose of reconstruction or amalgamation) under any law or government regulation relating to bankruptcy or insolvency whether by a third party or by the DU;
- (b) the appointment of a receiver or administrator over all or substantially all of the properties of the DU;
- (c) the making by the Company of an assignment or attempted assignment for the benefit of its creditors; or 12.5 Any termination of this Agreement pursuant to Clauses 13.3 or 13.4 shall be without prejudice to the rights of the Party terminating to seek and obtain damages for any breach of this Agreement by the other Party.

12.6 Termination shall not affect any right which either Party has accrued up to and on the termination date.

13. DISPUTE SETTLEMENT

If there is a dispute between the Parties then:

- 13.1 the parties must discuss the dispute initially with a view to settling the dispute amicably; then
- 13.2 In the event that the Parties are unable to agree on any settlement or arrangement, either Party may take the dispute to a court of law

14. GENERAL

- 14.1 No Party shall assign all or any of its rights hereunder without the prior written consent of the other Party.
- 14.2 This Agreement shall be read and construed according to the laws presently in force in Malaysia. The Parties agree to submit any dispute that may arise in relation to this Agreement to the jurisdiction of the Courts of Malaysia following unsuccessful amicable settlement.
- 14.3 Any amendment, revision or change to the terms of this Agreement must be in writing, mutually agreed on and signed by the Parties.
- 14.4 Should any provision of this Agreement be held by a Court of law to be unlawful, invalid, and unenforceable or in conflict with any rule, statute, ordinance or regulation, the validity and enforceability of the remaining provisions shall not be thereby affected.
- 14.5 Any notice approval, consent, request or other communication required or permitted to be given or made under this Agreement shall be in Bahasa Malaysia or the English language and shall be delivered to the address or facsimile number of the Party shown below or to such other addresses or facsimile numbers as may be notified in writing by the Party from time to time. Any notice sent by hand or facsimile transmission shall be deemed to have been received within twenty-four (24) hours from the time it was dispatched and in the case of service by A.R. ### 3. CONFIDENTIALITY

- 3.1 During and for a period of 5 (five) years from the date of disclosure, each party agrees to consider as confidential all information disclosed by the other party in written or tangible form or, if orally disclosed and confirmed in writing within 30 (thirty) days of disclosure and identified as confidential by the disclosing party.
- 3.2 The obligations above shall not extend to any confidential information for which the receiving party can prove that this information:
- Is in the public domain at the time of disclosure or comes within the public domain without fault of the receiving party.
  - Is already known or become known to the receiving party;
  - Is received from a third-party having no obligations of confidentiality to the disclosing party;
  - Is independently developed by the receiving party; or
  - Is required to be disclosed by law or court order
- 3.3 The existence and subsistence of this MoU and any discussions and/or evaluations contemplated hereby are confidential in nature and shall be kept confidential and shall not be disclosed to any third-party without the prior written consent of the other party hereto.
- 3.4 Notwithstanding the foregoing, any party may make such public disclosure as it believes, on the advice of counsel, only in the event if required by law or by applicable stock exchange regulations, in which case such party shall consult with the other party and gain such party's written approval prior to making such disclosure.
- 3.5 Each institution will appoint a representative in order to define and organise the cooperation programmes between both institutions.

Prof. Gayathri Devaraja, Prof. Department of Studies in Microbiology from DU side and Dr. N. Udupa, Research Director from SDMU side will be in charge of drawing up the annual work calendar and deal with unsettled questions. They shall meet alternatively at both institutions unless otherwise stated.

4. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

- 4.1. The parties agree that (i) the activities intended by this MoU may not be successfully completed; (ii) the results achieved may not be as anticipated; and (iii) these activities may not lead to any announced or generally available business engagement. Any decision by any party to forego, or engage any other business opportunity, to alter or supplement any business plan of direction, or to make any investment in anticipation of the consummation of any transaction contemplated hereunder, is at the sole discretion of the party electing to do so, and will not create any actual or potential liability or any obligation for the other party, even if that party is aware of, or has been informed of, or has indicated approval of, any such action, decision, or election.
- 4.2. Except for a breach of Clause 4, 11 and 12 for any claim in any way related to the subject matter of this MoU, the damaged party shall not be entitled to recover any actual and direct damages unless and until a definitive agreement has been signed. This will apply regardless of the form of action, whether in contract or in tort, including negligence. This limitation will not apply to claims for bodily injury or damage to real property or tangible personal property for which a party is legally liable. In no event will either party be liable for any lost profits, lost savings, incidental or indirect damages, or other economic consequential damages, even if advised of the possibility of such damages. In addition, neither party will be liable for any damages claimed by the other party based on any third-party claim.

5. NON-EXCLUSIVITY

The relationship of the parties under this MoU shall be non-exclusive and both parties, including their affiliates, subsidiaries and divisions, are free to pursue other agreements or collaborations of any kind. However, when entering into a particular agreement, the parties may agree to limit each party's right to collaborate with others on that subject.

6. TERMS AND TERMINATION

This MoU, unless extended by mutual written agreement of the parties, shall expire 5 (five) years after the effective date mentioned above. This MoU may be amended or terminated earlier by mutual written agreement of the parties at any time. Either party shall have the right to unilaterally terminate this MoU upon 60 (sixty) days prior written notice to the other party. However, no such early termination of this MoU, whether mutual or unilateral, shall affect the obligations of the participants under any agreement, Confidentiality clause as referenced in clause 4 above, or any other agreement entered into pursuant to this MoU, which obligations shall survive any such termination.

7. INDEMNITY

Each party hereby agrees to indemnify, defend, and hold the other party harmless from any and all claims, demands, costs, liabilities, losses, expenses and damages (including reasonable attorneys' fees, costs, and expert witnesses' fees) arising out of or in connection with breach of any of the provisions of this MoU. Indemnity is limited to the cost of the specific project.

8. RELATIONSHIP

Nothing in this MoU shall be construed to make either party a partner, an agent or legal representative of the other for any purpose.

9. ASSIGNMENT

It is understood by the Parties that this MoU is based on the professional competence and expertise of each party and hence neither Party shall transfer or assign this MoU, or rights or obligations arising hereunder, either wholly or in part, to any third-party.

10. COSTS OF THE MoU

Each Party shall bear their respective costs of carrying out the obligations under this MoU.

11. PUBLICITY

SDMU and the DU each agree not to use the trademarks, trade names, services marks or other proprietary marks of the other party to this MoU in any advertising, press releases, publicity matters, or other promotional materials without prior written approval of the other party. In addition, each party agrees not to initiate or distribute any press releases, publicity matters, or other promotional materials related to or referencing the subject matter of this MoU without prior written approval of the other party. In case of breach of the clauses of publicity by either party, the parties would be at liberty to take action in accordance with Indian Laws for indemnification.

The purpose of this Memorandum of Understanding is to establish collaboration between the Parties to promote academic bio-entrepreneurship, promotion of spinouts and facilitate commercialization of technologies developed by Department of Studies in Biotechnology, Davangere University, Shivagangothri, Davangere in broad areas of Life Sciences. Parties admire the benefit from the cooperation to take on the challenge of promoting bio-entrepreneurship through providing training and job opportunities.

Areas of Cooperation

1. BBC is established with the aim of fostering innovation ecosystem through translational research by start-ups/entrepreneurs in the broad areas of Life Sciences viz., Health Care (MedTech/Pharma/Bio-Pharma), Agriculture, Food/Nutrition, Industrial Biotechnology and Environmental Biotechnology and take it forward to commercialization; Build
